Dear Board of Directors,

Re: NSW Indigenous Chamber of Commerce Launch

On behalf of the Indigenous Business Council of Australia (IBCA) Board and myself, we would like to wish you all the best on this historic day.

The IBCA knows that Indigenous Chambers of Commerce across Australia play a crucial role in leading change. We know that the NSW Indigenous Chamber of Commerce will be one of these leaders. We welcome your establishment and know that Indigenous enterprises in New South Wales and the Indigenous Business Sector in Australia will benefit from this Chamber.

The IBCA understands that an enormous amount of work has gone into the establishment of this Chamber. We congratulate everyone that was involved, including the sponsors and would like to particularly acknowledge the fantastic leadership shown by Debbie Barwick. It is the work of dedicated people like her, your Board and committed stakeholders whose vision will grow, develop and change the Indigenous business sector in Australia.

While it is with great disappointment that I cannot personally attend today's official launch, Mr Charlie Jia, Queensland Representative for the IBCA will be officially representing the IBCA in my absence.

The IBCA looks forward to working with the NSW Indigenous Chamber of Commerce to develop Indigenous enterprises and the Indigenous business sector. We hope that today is a huge success and that the NSW Indigenous Chamber of Commerce achieves its vision. On behalf of the IBCA Board, I wish you and all your attendees a great day and a safe journey home. We look forward to working with, and meeting the Board soon.

Kind regards

Neil Willmet
Chairman
